

Work Loss Data Institute

“The Evidence Based Guideline Company”
www.worklossdata.com

Patricia Whelan

Patricia Whelan is a healthcare publishing executive with over 25 years experience in the healthcare industry, as co-founder and publisher of a number of leading medical database offerings, including: Medical Device Register 1981-1987; Physicians GenRx 1991-1995; and Official Disability Guidelines, 1996 to present. In addition, Pat has developed and conducted several CE courses and workshops for various organizations nationwide, including: Disability Management Employers’ Coalition (DMEC), American Academy of Disability Evaluating Physicians (AADEP), Texas Workers’ Comp Forum, California Workers Comp Forum, National Workers Compensation & Disability Conference, and American Association of Occupational Health Nurses (AAOHN).

Education:

Marymount College BA, Economics
Tarrytown, New York

Employment History:

CFO/Publisher & Co-Founder

Work Loss Data Institute LLC, Corpus Christi, Texas & San Diego, California
Co-Created, built, and runs leading company providing information and standards on workplace health and productivity. Publisher of Official Disability Guidelines, Employer Health Register, ODG Treatment in Workers’ Comp, as well as numerous custom and packaged studies on workers’ comp and employee absence.

CFO/Publisher & Co-Founder, Data Pharmaceutica, New York, New York

Co-Created, built, and ran company with leading pharmaceutical database. Publisher of Physicians’ GenRx. Company acquired by Mosby-Yearbook (Times Mirror)

CFO/Publisher & Co-Founder, Medical Device Register, Stamford, Connecticut

Co-Created, built, and ran company with largest database of medical equipment and supplies. Published Medical Device Register, Workers’ Comp/Homecare Product Directory, Directory of Hospital Personnel. Company acquired by Medical Economics (Thomson Corporation)